

THE SUPER EASY STRATEGY

for getting a Group together for PK

This simple plan is designed to help you, the Group Leader, to rally the men for PK.

Remember, the personal approach always works best - one man at a time!

Get Ready...	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><input type="checkbox"/> Get your Pastor on board, and sign up to be a Partnership Church to receive extra benefits. If your church leadership is not supportive of PK, contact us for other options.<input type="checkbox"/> Obtain your church's phone list to get contact details of your church men. PK also sends all Group Leaders a list of past attendees from your Group.<input type="checkbox"/> Set up your Group* online. See separate Eventbrite instructions.
Build Enthusiasm and Momentum...	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><input type="checkbox"/> Display posters on church bulletin board and in men's toilets. Order more posters or brochures if needed.<input type="checkbox"/> Personally invite men to attend the Event with you – either face to face, ie after church, or by phoning. Encourage them to bring someone with them.<input type="checkbox"/> Arrange for Event insert/ad to be included in printed or email church bulletins (especially prior to Discount Cut-off date). See PK website for pre-designed templates.<input type="checkbox"/> Leverage the PK men's breakfast to help you promote the Event to your men.<input type="checkbox"/> Set up a Promise Keepers display at church with brochures, posters and a sign-up sheet. Approach men personally and invite them to be part of the Group.<input type="checkbox"/> Ask the Senior Pastor to endorse the Event from the pulpit and encourage the men to go as a Group. Use PowerPoint template/promo video in the service to promote the Event.<input type="checkbox"/> Organise your Group's Roadtrip (especially if travelling long distance).
Prepare to Capture the Momentum...	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><input type="checkbox"/> Prepare a post-Event follow-up plan, such as a weekly open men's group, to build on what the men have experienced and the friendships that have developed.<input type="checkbox"/> Arrange for a slot in the Sunday service following the Event - for the men to testify about their Event experience.
Go!	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><input type="checkbox"/> Add final names to the Group online, up to the Wednesday before Event. Others can be added on the day.<input type="checkbox"/> Enjoy the Event!
